

Resume #3 - "Professionally review my resume"

When the client is interested in obtaining a professional resume review to prepare for a job search or questioning the attractiveness and content of a current resume, the coaching consultation would include the following:

- Review and critique an existing, completed resume.
- Make observations and recommendations for the client to implement.